

Sonoma County Conservation Action Report Card 2015-2016

Official's Name	Envr. Voting	Listens to Citizens	Ratings for Fall 2013 – Summer 2015. Ratings are based on citizen input and are the opinion of SCCA, which is responsible for the contents of this report.
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
Susan Gorin	A-	A-	Strong environmental ally. Working hard for her District; leadership on Sonoma Developmental Center is appreciated. Reaches out to other Districts and cities when environmental issues are at stake. Responsive to requests for an audience.
David Rabbitt	B-	B+	Improvement on his environmental awareness. Needs to show leadership on Lafferty Ranch. Often reaches out, agree or disagree. Responds quickly.
Shirlee Zane	A-	B+	Parks and Open Space stances appreciated. Takes a stand and isn't afraid to state the obvious. Disappointing outcome on green-waste being out-hauled from Sonoma County with no end in sight. Accessible, reaches out.
James Gore	B	B	Newest Board member. Took responsibility on Windsor tribal issue. Talks the talk; upcoming votes on Community Separator, Winery, VESCO policies will speak loudly to his reliability as an environmental vote.
Efren Carrillo	C	C-	Good votes on some environmental issues; stance on self pay stations at the beach appreciated. Responsive at times when issues are presented to him; can be abrasive.
CLOVERDALE CITY COUNCIL
Joe Palla	B-	C+	Supported low- flow toilet and laundry-to landscape programs, and supports Clover Springs Open Space Project. Does not seem to take public input well.
Robert Cox	B	B	Strong advocate of Sonoma Compost serving on Waste Management Board but does not take initiative on environmental issues.
Gus Wolter	D+	D	Pro-developer/anti-environment. Refused to budge on his pro-Asti in UGB stance. Often-heavy handed. Appears unprepared at times at Council.
Carol Russell	B+	B+	Very supportive and active in SMART, Climate Action 2020, and Health Action. Generally very responsive. An ambassador and leader for Cloverdale in the County.
Maryann Brigham	C-	C	Doesn't appear to be interested in environmental or land use issues. Does the basics.
COTATI CITY COUNCIL
John Dell'Osso	A-	A-	Serves on Open Space District Advisory Committee, and holds interest in local wildlife issues. Response to calls, and e-mails.
John C. Moore	B	B-	Goes along with the majority of positive environmental votes. Response is minimal.
Susan Harvey	B+	B+	Makes thoughtful contributions on environmental issues, does help lead the way to environmental issues. Open and willing to listen to different viewpoints.
Mark Landman	A-	A-	Takes charge on environmental issues, and comes up with creative solutions; involved with Sonoma Clean Power, water issues, and reducing traffic. Responsive.
Wendy Skillman	B+	B	Supports majority environmental vote, but rarely takes the lead. Tends to be responsive and willing to listen to input.
HEALDSBURG CITY COUNCIL
Tom Chambers	D+	C-	Dismisses citizen priorities for retaining small town feel and advocates for expanded town growth measures. Meets with voters but does not incorporate their concerns.
Gary Plass	D-	D-	Consistent "no" vote on environmental issues. Selectively accessible.
Shaun McCaffery	D+	C+	Does not enhance small town diversity. Inconsistent responses. Avoids citizen input on difficult issues.
Brigette Mansell	B+	B+	Understands environmental issues, needs to push harder and stand her ground at city council. Busy with her teaching job, but is willing to listen to residents. A go-getter.
Eric Ziedrich	D	C-	Mind is set on "building our way out." Responsive at times. Conservative minded.
PETALUMA CITY COUNCIL
David Glass	A-	A	Strong defender of environment and open government. Lucky to have him leading the city. Accessible and interested in citizen concerns.
Chris Albertson	C-	C+	Seems unknowledgeable about the environment. If interested will engage; but rarely.
Teresa Barrett	A	A	Outstanding leadership on environmental issues; moves the city in a more environmentally conscious direction. LAFCO service is to be commended. Very accessible & always interested.
Dave King	B-	B	Needs some environmental policy coaching; shows some promise as an environmental vote. Listens and takes action.
Mike Healy	B	B	Supporter for opening of Bill Kortum Regional Park at Lafferty Ranch. Participates and attends Lafferty committee meetings and informs council. Usually accessible.
Gabe Kearney	C-	C+	Not interested in the future. Does not respond to phone calls, and meets with few people depending on personal level of interest.
Kathy Miller	C	C	She does not show leadership or engagement on environmental issues. Can be responsive if interested in the topic.

Sonoma County Conservation Action Report Card 2015-2016

Official's Name	Voting	Listening	Ratings are for Fall 2013 – Summer 2015. Scores are the opinion of SCCA.
ROHNERT PARK CITY COUNCIL
Gina Belforte	F	F	Supports business development over people and the land, does not understand environmental issues. Ignores citizen's opinions on CIRs and Wal-Mart expansion.
Jake Mackenzie	A	B-	Strongly supports people and land over business development. Responds to citizen opinions. Involvement on regional basis is a boon for Sonoma County.
Amy Ahanotu	B-	B	Weakly supports business development over land and people. Disappointing vote on Wal-Mart. Very responsive.
Joseph Callinan	F	F	Does not understand environmental issues, and chooses business development over land and people. Ignores citizens, very unresponsive.
Pam Stafford	D	D	Supports business development, aka Wal-Mart, and dismisses the land and the people. Ignores citizens. Third place on a poorly performing Council.
SANTA ROSA CITY COUNCIL
John Sawyer	C+	B+	Swing vote on environmental issues. Has become more aware of environmental issues this term. Improvement on responsiveness, willing to listen. Very visible.
Chris Coursey	A	A-	Aware of environmental concerns and acts accordingly, through water conservation and alternative energy. Willing to meet with public and very accessible.
Erin Carlstrom	B	B	Usually votes the environment. Passionate about certain issues and actively engages the public. Great votes on the City's housing and homelessness issues.
Julie Combs	A	A	Supportive of all environmental issues. Great leadership on housing issues. Very responsive and makes an effort to go out of her way to express citizen concern.
Tom Schwedhelm	D+	B-	Has no environmental record, does not show interest on environmental issues. Reasonably accessible to "circle of supporters;" besides that shows little response.
Gary Wysocky	A	A-	Voice of environmental policy, strong on environmental issues. Budget hawk. Accessible always. Can be wary towards new ideas. Never afraid to speak up for the environment, even when staff is not forthcoming.
Ernesto Olivares	D+	C	Limited support on environmental issues. Accessible to "circle of supporters." Lately has been more vocal at the dais. Often comes out to community events.
SEBASTOPOL CITY COUNCIL
Patrick Slayter	A	B+	Has become more responsive to environmental issues, and getting bike lanes. Improvement on approachability. Has been responsive and active as Mayor.
Sarah Glade Gurney	A	A-	Seeks out information on environmental issues; leads many times. Responds to input, tries to knock on every door during election cycles.
Una Glass	A	A-	New to the Council. Solid environmental record thus far. Listens. Is available to constituents. Formula business ordinance showed her stripes and they're green.
Robert Jacob	A	A-	Considers the environment and has a solid vote on environmental issues. Available when possible; was very active as Mayor. Newsletter to community is appreciated.
John Eder	A-	B+	Advocates on issues important to him and is willing to discuss environmental issues. Available when possible. *The challenge for all Councilmembers this year is the General Plan/UGB renewal.
SONOMA CITY COUNCIL
Laurie Gallian	B+	B+	Can be timid; involvement in environmental issues could be stronger. Community presence is light. Reaches out at times, but could benefit from listening more.
Madolyn Agrimonti	C+	B-	Not clear on what environmental issues she would stand for. Unsure of her responsiveness since she's so new to the council.
Gary Edwards	C	C+	Focuses on historical preservation rather than environmental issues. Needs to be more approachable and open to new ideas. Still new to council.
David Cook	C	B-	Middle of the road environmentalist. Takes time to listen to citizens.
Rachel Hundley	C	B-	Seems to know nothing of the environment. Supports the raceway. Very responsive and friendly. Also new to council.
WINDSOR TOWN COUNCIL
Debora Fudge	A	A	A reliable voice for the environment. Planning and vision for the future are her strong points. SMART and Compost advocacy are appreciated.
Sam Salmon	B	B	Environmental values run deep. Advocate for oak tree preservation; but at expense of high density housing next to the SMART station. Available to the public.
Dominic Foppoli	C	B	New to Town Council in 2015. Out of town often for work; has missed meetings.
Bruce Okrepkie	B-	C	Swing vote on the initial PAYS vote. Sonoma Clean Power board member.
Mark Millan	B	B-	Has shown good understanding of water issues, as that is his profession. New to the Town Council in 2015.
